

Week	Progress	Issues
	1 work on selecting project
	2 selected project: a electronic market place	which language/languages to use
	3 reasearching various different languages
	4 decided to use Python's Django Framwork with javascript and css for front end
	5 start with building homepage and testing different css sytles	find css templates
	6 decide to use Bootstrap for css tempaltes
	7 start building back end: forms , views	way to validate user input and update database
	8 found functoins to validate and standardize user input/ add templates for static code
	9 worked on adding products finding images
	10 setting up and working with admin to manage site backend	